

TOEIC EXAMINATION DATES – 2016

TOEIC is the Test of English for International Communication and is used by companies and organizations worldwide to establish the level of English of their employees.

The TOEIC Listening & Reading test is a 2-hour multiple-choice test consisting of 200 questions divided into 100 questions each in listening comprehension and reading comprehension. Each candidate receives independent scores for written and listening comprehension on a scale from 5 to 495 points. The total score adds up to a scale from 10 to 990 points.

TOEIC test questions are based on real-life work settings in an international environment (meetings, travel, telephone conversations, etc.). The TOEIC Listening and Reading test is a valid assessment of English-language reading and listening skills for the workplace. Employers worldwide use the TOEIC test to determine who can communicate effectively in English across borders and cultures with co-workers and clients.
